

Wiltshire Council Early Years & Childcare Annual Conference 'Home from Home' Engaging parents and supporting quality home environments Friday 12 & Saturday 13 November Cumberwell Golf Club ~ Bradford on Avon

Focus: This conference will support practitioners working with young children to make successful setting/home links with parents and carers, to provide a good quality home learning environment.

Who should attend: Reception teachers, early years practitioners at nurseries and pre-schools, childminders and out of school clubs.

Keynote speakers Friday – Honor Rhodes - The National Family and Parenting Institute
– Vicky Hutchin - DfE National Strategies

Keynote speakers Saturday – Neil Griffiths - Former primary school headteacher, successful children's author and originator of award winning 'Storysack' phenomenon
– Vicky Hutchin - DfE National Strategies

Workshops include:

- * Communicating Friendly Spaces
- * Green Fairy Puppets
- * Family Learning - the benefits of working with families
- * Early Support
- * Working with Families

Costs per delegate £25

Bookings forms to follow in September

If you have any enquiries in the meantime please contact:
Bright Horizons 0845 601 2392